DESTINATIONS

Northwest (Salta and Jujuy), ARGENTINA

Northern provinces feature traces of pre-Columbian cultures, mingled with ruins of native's villages, as well as forts and constructions back to the time of the Conquest and Colonization. Time seems to stand still in the high plateau of the Puna, a land full of mountain ranges, steep mountain paths, and gorges. Villages have been built in the small valleys. The region offers landscapes full of contrast for tourists to enjoy, from the high peaks to the plains, the salt pans, where Latin American culture took root.

ITINERARY

Day 1: Buenos Aires ✈️ Salta - Purmamarca

Arrival at Salta airport, meeting with your guide.

City tour Salta

Explore the city of Salta, its colonial buildings and the High Altitude Museum, guided by an archeology expert, to see sleeping children, mummified high in the Andes, as they are offered in sacrifice as part of an Inca ritual.

We will depart through the Valley where the Capital of Salta is located, along the way we will see sugar cane and tobacco plantations, which are the main activities in the area.

Near the mountain you will find a green strip of Yungas jungle, an unexpected environment on a trip to the desert! But the forest will slowly disappear, changing into formations that become more and more colorful. You will arrive to Purmamarca and the Cerro de los Siete Colores, among the things to do in Purmamarca, it is recommended to visit its market and visit some crafts.

Overnight in Purmamarca.

Day 2: Purmamarca

Breakfast at the hotel.

Purmamarca & Salinas Grandes

The day will start from Purmamarca, an area declared a World Heritage Site by UNESCO. You can visit the Cerro de los 7 Colores, its market, the Church and enjoy the charm of the town. Then we will begin the journey to the Salinas Grandes, going up the Cuesta de Lipán. This is one of the most scenic parts of the entire tour. Huge canyons and mountains with whimsical shapes, covered in parts of cardones, make their way through the route that zigzags non-stop up to 4,140 meters high.

From four thousand meters, you will have the best panoramic views, small towns with ancient roots, the high peaks of the Andes and the Salinas Grandes in all their immensity. Once in the Salinas Grandes you will have time to take fun photos, sit in the salt, and enjoy this unusual setting.

Overnight in Purmamarca.

Day 3: Purmamarca – Quebrada de Humahuaca

Breakfast at the hotel

Quebrada de Humahuaca

The tour begins in Purmamarca heading to the imposing Quebrada de Humahuaca with all its colorful and picturesque landscapes.

We will visit Tilcara, where we will have enough time to explore the town.

After passing through Huacalera and the Tropic of Capricorn, you reach Uquía, which in its Church houses one of the most important collections of the famous “Arquebus Angels”, emblematic samples of Cusco painting. Finally you will reach Humahuaca – Pueblo, where it is recommended to visit the Church, the Government House, the Local Market and walk through its old cobbled streets.

Overnight in Purmamarca.

Day 4: Purmamarca – Jujuy  Buenos Aires

Breakfast at the hotel.

At the appropriate time, transfer to Jujuy Airport to take your flight.
